(d) the steps taken by the Government to monitor the functioning of such homes and health care centres?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (DR. DEBENDRA PRADHAN)

(a): There is a scheme for provision of shelter houses for looking after the animals being implemented by the Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment. Brief of the scheme is at Annexure-I

(b): State-wise amount released under the scheme during the years 1998-99 and 1999-2000 is at Annexure-II

(c): Budget provision of Rs.2.05 crores for 1998-99 and Rs. 2.50 crores for 1999-2000 was made.List of NGOs getting financial assistance (State-wise) during the years 1998-99 and 1999-2000 is at Annexures-III and IV, respectively.

(d): Periodical monitoring of the scheme is done through regular inspections of the organisations by Officers of Animal Welfare Board of India, Chennai, designated agency/authority deputed by the Ministry and the officers of the Ministry.The Division has asked the grantee institution to submit regular progress/performance reports of the scheme undertaken by them. No Grant-in-aid is released unless pre-inspection is done by the above mentioned authorities. The overall performance of the scheme as per inspection reports received from all sources is very satisfactory.

Annexure 1

Scheme for Provision of Shelter Houses for Looking after the Animal

This scheme was introduced in the year 1998-99.

The objective of the scheme for provision of shelter houses for looking after the animals is to make provision for establishment and maintenance of shelter houses in all the districts of the country for care and protection of the animals. The components of the scheme include construction of shelter houses, construction of small health care center for each shelter house, construction of water troughs and purchase of medical equipments. Under this scheme grants can be given to voluntary organizations / institutions, universities, research institutes, schools, statutory bodies like Panchayat Raj Institutions, Municipal Corporations, Town Area Committees, Red Cross Societies and its branches. This is a central sector scheme and the NGOs are assisted up to a maximum of 90% of the project cost of the construction of a shelter house with a ceiling of Rs.25 lakhs including 10% contribution to be made by NGOs.The grant-in-aid is released in two equal instalments.

2. Budget provision of Rs.2.05 crores was made during the year 1998-99 and Rs.2.50 crores during 1999-2000.
